Centre for Gender Equity

Studies Gender Sensitization

Action Plan 2026-2027

- The Centre aims to create an awareness about various aspects related to gender equity not just for students but also for faculty and non-teaching staff. The Centre is signing an MOU with Talentnomics to conduct workshops for all staff members and for students, separately, to foster introspection, awareness and debate on issues of equity in personal and professional lives.
- The Centre will conduct group discussions every fortnight on varied significant topics related to gender with special focus on women's safety and education about consent.
- Workshops and Internships in collaboration with Cequin. Also, community outreach programmes.
- The Centre shall celebrate important dates eg. International day for Older Persons and International Day for the Girl Child in October and November. Initiatives to work with older women shall be explored through the year.
- Panel discussions and seminars on themes of Gender Equity with special emphasis on financial literacy, awareness about digital safety and cyber-crime, women's safety across age groups, women's health etc. Encouraging students participation in paper presentations to foster research on gender equity related topics.

- A Workshop to help students evaluate their aptitude for different careers in collaboration with a specialized agency that helps women students discover their potential.
- Celebrating Women's Day week in March 2027 with a cluster of events.

of gender issues.

- The Centre will celebrate women achievers by commemorating significant days throughout the year.
- A book Launch of Speaking (of) Widows shall be organized at IIC. The book is based on GESC research project on "Empowering Widows" undertaken by students and teachers in the previous academic years.
- The Centre will encourage students to undertake more research projects related to gender studies so that students can further understand various aspects related to gender studies.
- The Centre will conduct an Add On course in collaboration with different national and state- run NGOs to create awareness amongst the students about varied issues pertaining to gender.
