Brief Report

"Investing in knowledge pays the best interest." - Benjamin Franklin

With this aim in mind, Aamdani: the Finance and Investment Cell of Janki Devi Memorial College, hosted an enriching course titled "Dynamics of Finance" from March 7th to March 24th through online mode. This course was attended by 37 enthusiastic students, and aimed to demystify finance-related concepts and equip participants with foundational knowledge. Guided by Anika Aggarwal, Sukriti Negi, and Anushri Saxena, students delved into topics such as financial markets, elements of finance, and monetary policies. Anika, Sukriti, and Anushri leveraging their respective academic backgrounds in B.Com (Hons), B.Com (Prog), and Mathematics (Hons), shared their expertise and facilitated engaging discussions. The course was provided at a minimal fee of Rs.149.

Throughout the course, students explored the mechanisms driving financial markets and gained insights into how monetary policies influence economic dynamics. In addition to interactive sessions, the course included assignments and case studies to reinforce learning and deepen understanding of concepts. These practical exercises provided students with opportunities to apply theoretical knowledge to real-world scenarios, enabling them to develop critical thinking and analytical skills. Feedback from participants was overwhelmingly positive, with students expressing gratitude for the clarity and accessibility of the content. They commended the resource persons for their adeptness in simplifying complex concepts, making the learning experience enjoyable and rewarding. Overall, the Dynamics of Finance course served as a valuable platform for students to enhance their understanding of finance and cultivate essential skills for future endeavors.
