

Report on Add on course The ABC's of Gender and Sexuality

The Department of Sociology, JDMC signed an MOU with the NGO TARSHI (Talking About Reproductive and Sexual Health Issues) to conduct a 30 hour online Add on Course on Understanding Sexuality.

The course was a paid course and was spread across 3 months (February to April 2024)
The course was attended by 33 students from JDMC and outside as well, 24 from JDMC and 9 from outside the college.

The resource persons were all from TARSHI

The 30 hours programme will cover the following:

A: Affirming spaces to foster dialogues and discussions through online sessions (10 hours)

B: Basics and beyond: a foundational e-course on gender, sexuality and SRHR (14 hours)

C: Call to Action through social action projects

These sessions entail interactive discussions among learners, featuring elements such as breakout sessions, group work, short films and case studies to enhance the learning experience. We aim to ensure that all discussions are confidential, and we will work with the students to provide a safe space for learning.

Session Topic Duration

Orientation Session: 2 hrs

What does Sexuality mean to us? :2 hrs

Reading Workshop: Discussion on gender and sexuality through selected In Plainspeak articles: 2 hrs

Understanding Sexual and Reproductive Health and Rights: 2 hrs

Reflecting on learnings from the journey: 2 hrs

Social Action Practical assignment (6 hours):

During the course, each student has to do a Social Action Project (SAP) which contributes towards awareness building and resource creation to demystify and debunk myths around sexuality to facilitate creating Safe, Inclusive and Self-Affirming (SISA) spaces in different spheres of life.

The participants found the sessions informative and engaging. Given the nature of the topic some students did not actively participate verbally.

To address this the resource persons encouraged them to express their thoughts in writing, making them feel more comfortable and open to anonymously sharing views, concerns, and questions.

The course concluded successfully on April 19,2024 with an online certificate distribution and feedback discussion.
