

SEMINARS AND CONFERENCES

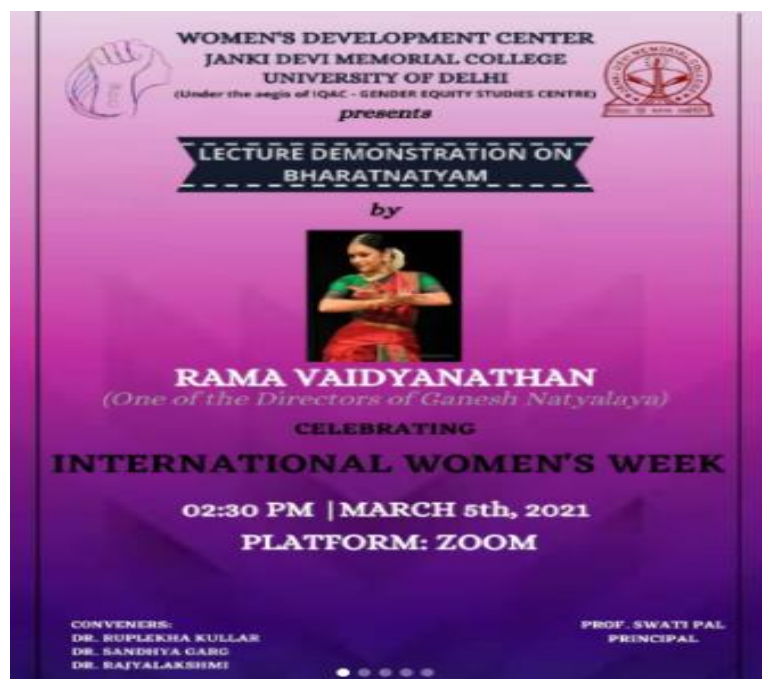

2020-21

Lecture on International Woman's Week

Women Development Centre organised a lecture by Hon'ble (former) Vice Chancellor Prof. Shukla Mohanty on the International Woman's Week on 6th march 2021.

Lecture on Demonstration of Bharatnatyam

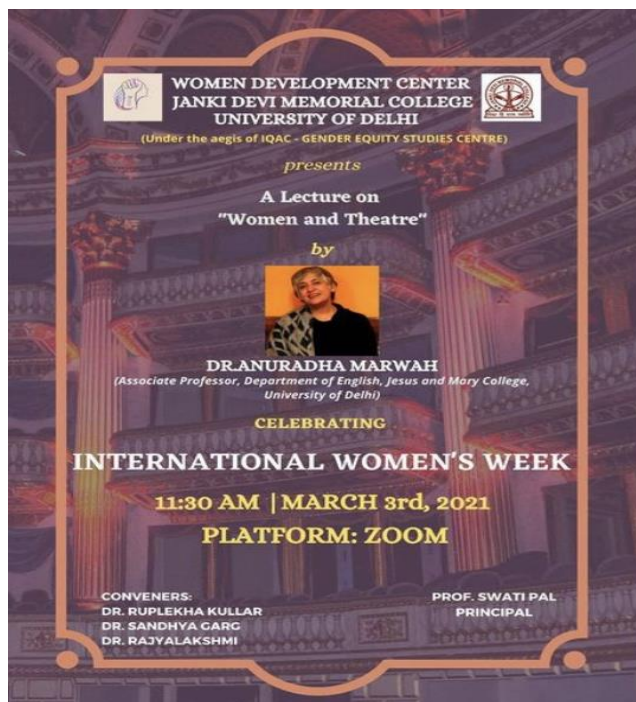

The 5th day of International Women's Week was flagged off by Rama Vaidyanathan ma'am, who has performed in every major dance venue in the world. She explained the historical background of dance, in which she further added and got specific to classical dance form which is vividly portrayed and embodied through the deities we worship (lord shiva and parvati).

वर्तमान परिदृश्य में स्त्री अस्मिता

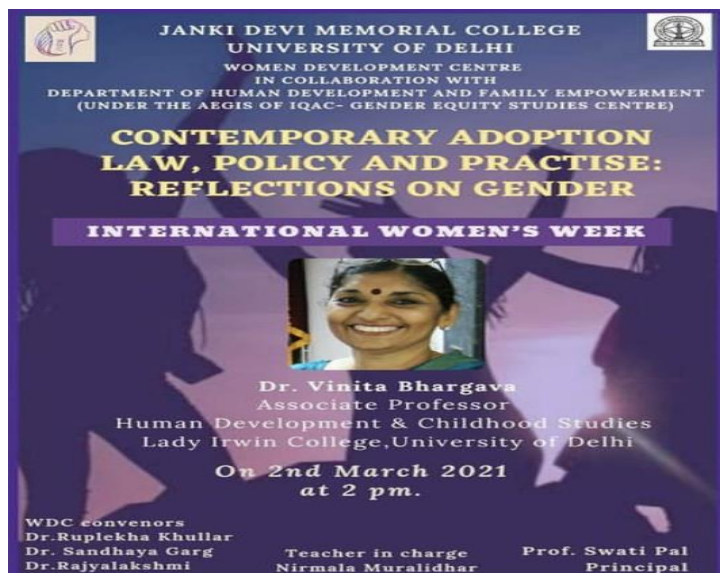

मैं Women Development Centre के सन्दर्भ में प्रोफेसर कुमुद शर्मा का आभार प्रकट करती हूं। आपने स्त्री की आज के समय में छवि से हमें भलीभांति परिचय कराया है। मैं हमारी प्राचार्या प्रोफेसर स्वाति पाल का आभार प्रकट करती हूं। हमारे WDC के Conveners Dr Ruplekha Khullar, Dr Sandhya Garg, Dr Rajyalakshmi का आभार प्रकट करती हूं। यहां पे एकत्रित सभी शिक्षक शिक्षिकाओं एवम् छात्र छात्राओं का आभार प्रकट करती हूं।

Lecture on Women and Theatre

The third day of International Women's Week was inaugurated by Dr. Anuradha Marwah, who is very actively involved in the area of the Market for Contemporary Indian Fiction. Her webinar was based on the topic 'WOMEN AND THEATRE'. From her experience she told how theatre is all about life. She gave three aspects to this engagement: I) 'Women as character'. II) The second aspect which she talked about was 'Women as Practitioner'. III) The third aspect which she quoted was 'Women as Audiences'.

Contemporary Adoption of Law, Policy and Practise: Reflections on Genders

The second day of International Women's Week was inaugurated by Dr. Vinita Bhargava, an Associate Professor in Lady Irwin College. Her topic for which was "Adoption policy and practice through the gender lens". She presented her arguments through her presentation.

Lecture on Gender Relations in Contemporary World, challenges and Transformations

The beginning of the celebration was flagged off by the most exceptional guest of Honour, Ms. Lalitha Kumaramanglam. Along with our esteemed principal Prof. Swati Pal, our cherished conveners of WDC, Dr Ruplekha Khullar, Dr Sandhya Garg, Dr Rajyalakshmi. To cheer us, all the other teachers present and retired also joined.